Hohenzoilerns and Cumberland.

Karisruhe, Germany, Feb. in.—An important event in modern German history occurred to-day when the old foul between the religning house of Hohenzoilern and the House of Cumberland came to an end.

At the same time, the engagement of Princess Victoria Louine, the Kalser's oldest daughter, to Prince Ernest August, youngest son of the Duke of Cumberland, was announced.

The fend between these two great houses has existed since the kingdom of Hanarer was annexed by Prussia in 186. Emperor William, the Empress, Princess Victoria Louise and Prince Occar came here from Herlin and met Prince Ernest August to-day. A long conference followed, after which news of the engagement of the Kalser's daughter to the young prince of the house of Cumberland was given out.

The basis of settlement of the old quarrel it was reported, was the promise of the Kalser's to-confer the title of Duke of The Malser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Kalser to confer the title of Duke of the Frincess Victoria had faller in the prince with the conference of the Calse attention to a number of the danger the Calse attention to a number of the danger in consecution with the currency leavance to the present session a reasonment of the conference of the following the conference of the out in the Bavarian army.
